

SALINA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Typically meets on second Sundays
Check online calendar for exact dates 1-2 p.m.
Ad Astra Books & Coffee House,
135 N. Santa Fe

Book Club to New Worlds features a rotating selection of Fantasy, Sci-Fi, and Graphic Novels.

Book Club to New Worlds

January

The Lost Bookshop

by Evie Woods

Opaline, Martha and Henry have been the side characters in their own lives. But when a vanishing bookshop casts its spell, these unsuspecting strangers will discover that their own stories are every bit as extraordinary as the ones found in the pages of their beloved books.

February

Genesis of Misery

by Neon Yang

A reimagining of Joan of Arc's story given a space opera, giant robot twist: when the voice of an angel, or a very convincing delusion, leads Misery to the center of the Empire, they find themselves trapped between two powerful and dangerous factions, each hoping to use Misery to win a terrible war.

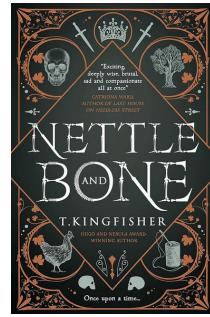

March

Locke & Key Master Edition

Volume 1

by Joe Hill

After the murder of their father, Tyler, Kinsey, and Bode Locke relocate with their mother to the family estate of Keyhouse, located in Lovecraft, Massachusetts, where they discover magical keys that unlock powers — and secrets.

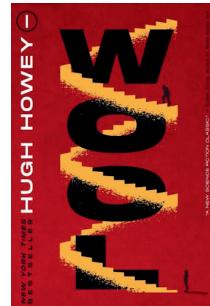

April

Nettle and Bone

by T. Kingfisher

To save her sister and topple a throne, Marra is offered the tools she needs if she completes three seemingly impossible tasks with the help of a disgraced ex-knight, a reluctant fairy godmother and an enigmatic gravewitch and her fowl familiar.

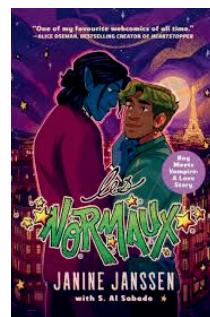

May

Wool

by Hugh Howey

In a future toxic landscape, a community that lives in an underground silo is rocked by the desire of Sheriff Holston, who has upheld the group's rules for years, to go outside, setting in motion events that kindle the fire of revolution.

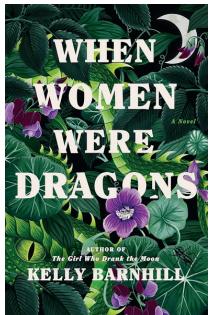

June

Les Normaux, Volume One

by Janine Janssen

Sébastien recently moved to supernatural Paris hoping to get away from his troubles at home and live a peaceful life learning magic. But what are you going to do when the really hot vampire you made out with last night to forget your troubles turns out to be your new neighbor?

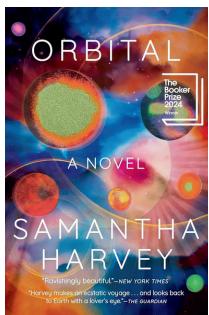

July

When Women Were Dragons

by Kelly Barnhill

In 1955, the Mass Dragoning transformed thousands of women, including Alex Green's Aunt Marla, into dragons, leaving destruction in their wake. Alex must now navigate the event's consequences and learn to accept people as they truly are.

August

Orbital

by Samantha Harvey

Six astronauts from five countries embark on one of humanity's last space station missions. This is a moving elegy and deeply thoughtful meditation on our environment, humanity, and planet Earth.

September

The Standard Book of Anything

by Andrea Rome

Emaline Strider is the fixer for her village of Brookerby. When the town's Warding Tree of Protection crashes, crippling the community, Emaline must travel to the capital to find a solution. Along the way, she discovers a world full of magic, including a guiding, shape-shifting book.

*Author will be present during the discussion

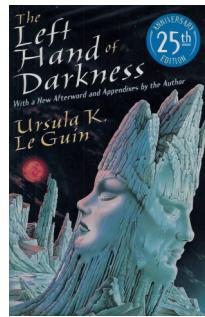

October

The Familiar

by Leigh Bardugo

In 17th-century Madrid, the servant Luzia Cotado secretly uses scraps of magic to survive. When her mistress discovers her gift, Luzia is forced to use her talents to elevate the family's social standing. But as her notoriety grows, so does the danger that her Jewish heritage will expose her to the Inquisition's wrath.

November

Left Hand of Darkness

by Ursula K. Le Guin

A lone human ambassador is sent to the icebound planet of Winter, a world without sexual prejudice, where the inhabitants' gender is fluid. His goal is to facilitate Winter's inclusion in a growing intergalactic civilization. But to do so he must bridge the gulf between his own views and those of the strange, intriguing culture he encounters.

December

Fishflies

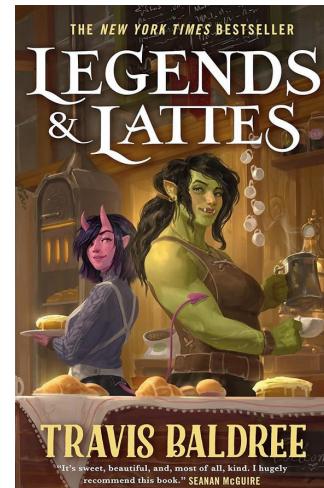

by Jeff Lemire

When a brutal and violent crime puts the life of an innocent teenage boy in the balance, it sets off a chain of events in bucolic Bell River, Ontario that will permanently change several residents' lives. And as the manhunt heats up, a lonely girl named Franny Fox will form an unlikely friendship with a fugitive that leads them on an odyssey of discovery and redemption.

January 2027

Title Preview

Legends and Lattes

Visit salinapubliclibrary.org/events to register!