

SALINA PUBLIC LIBRARY

Typically meets on second Mondays
Check online calendar for exact dates
6:15-7:45 p.m.
Campbell Room

Monday Night Book Discussion

Monday Night Book Discussion is a friendly book club that discusses a different title each month from a variety of genres. The public is welcome to come to any or all of the discussions. Can't make it in person? You can also attend via Zoom! On request, a link will be sent the day of the meeting.

January
The Book Club for Troublesome Women

by Marie Bostwick

Four dissatisfied sixties-era housewives form a book club turned sisterhood that will hold fast amid the turmoil of a rapidly changing world and alter the course of each of their lives.

April

Fuzz: When Nature Breaks the Law

By Mary Roach

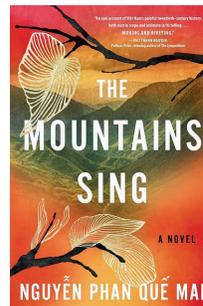

Mary Roach takes us on an irresistible investigation into the unpredictable world where wildlife and humans meet. What's to be done about a jaywalking moose? A grizzly bear caught breaking and entering? A murderous tree? The answers are best found not in the law but in science. (This event is part of the Salina Reads series).

February
James

By Percival Everett

Pulitzer Prize - A brilliant reimagining of Adventures of Huckleberry Finn—both harrowing and satirical—told from the enslaved Jim's point of view.

May

The Mountains Sing

By Nguyễn Phan Quế Mai

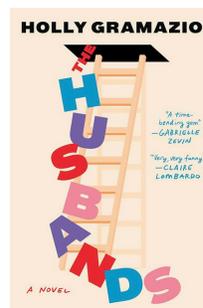

Years after a family is forced by Vietnam's Communist Land Reforms to abandon their farm, a granddaughter comes of age as her loved ones depart for the Ho Chi Minh Trail.

March
The Antidote

By Karen Russell

In a Dust Bowl-era Nebraska town burdened by the Great Depression and its dark past, a witch guarding memories, a grieving athlete, a cursed farmer, and a photographer with a time-bending camera grapple with buried secrets and the consequences of a nation's forgotten history.

June

The Husbands

By Holly Gramazio

When she discovers the attic in her London flat is creating an infinite supply of husbands, waking up to a slightly altered life each day, Lauren confronts the question: if swapping lives is as easy as changing a lightbulb, how do you know you've taken the right path?

July

The Berry Pickers

By Amanda Peters

In 1962, four-year-old Ruthie vanishes while her Mi'lkmaq family is in Maine picking blueberries, leaving her brother Joe tormented by loss. Years later, Norma, a Boston woman haunted by unsettling dreams, uncovers the long-buried secret that links their two families.

October

Long Island

By Colm Toibin

In 1976, Eilis Lacey, an Irish immigrant living on Long Island with her Italian American husband Tony and their extended family, struggles with feeling alone in a still-new country. Her life is upended when an Irishman arrives at her door, revealing his wife is pregnant with Tony's child and threatening to leave the baby on Eilis's doorstep.

August

Lessons in Chemistry

By Bonnie Garmus

In the early 1960s, chemist and single mother Elizabeth Zott, the reluctant star of America's most beloved cooking show due to her revolutionary skills in the kitchen, uses this opportunity to dare women to change the status quo.

November

Theo of Golden

By Allen Levi

When the mysterious Theo arrives in the southern city of Golden, his quiet mission to buy and return 92 pencil portraits to their rightful owners sparks unexpected connections and transformations. *Theo of Golden* is a moving tale about the beauty of generosity, wonder, and the unseen impact of kindness.

September

Project Hail Mary

By Andy Weir

Ryland Grace awakens alone on a spaceship with no memory of who he is or why he's there, only to slowly realize he's humanity's last hope against an extinction-level threat. As his memories return and with the help of an unexpected ally, he must complete a desperate mission to save Earth.

December

The Darkest Evening

By Ann Cleeves

Discovering a toddler in an abandoned vehicle near the run-down home where her estranged father grew up, Detective

Inspector Vera Stanhope approaches the property during a boisterous Christmas party before discovering the body of a woman outside.

Visit salinapubliclibrary.org/events to register!